LOCAL NEWS.

LOYALTY, U. R. A. A!-We learn that there was a gathering of the Loyal, last night, at the Lyceum Hall, undoubtedly in anticipation of the speedy territorializing of our old Commonwealth, and to make preparation accordingly-of the "sayings" of which we have no account. It appears that it was an adjourned meeting, and was presided over by the Commonwealth's Attorney of Fairfax countyy lept Judge-assisted by Fame's unknown boy. As usual, at the gatherings of the faithful, there was great difficulty about light, the gas refusing to shed its effulgent rays over the benighted souls, and coal oil and dips had, therefore, to be called into requisition. It further appears that after the procurement of the requisite dips an organization was effected, having at its head an ex U. S. Revenue Asses sor, assisted by an ex-U. S tax commissioner, and an ex-J. P., with an ex-city collector as secretary and treasurer. Mr. McKenzie-the "big gua" of the faction-was on hand, and arranged the minutiae of the association, and a committee to examine into the antecedents of any who may wish to join, was appointed, in order that the organization may be kept pure and undefiled. Alexandria and Virginia were hardly represented in the gathering.

THE LECTURE LAST NIGHT .- Dr. Bugby lectured last night, at Liberty Hall, to a large and highly appreciative audience, upon "The Disease called Love," which le treated with scientific ability. The lecture was upwards of an hour in its delivery, and exhibited much research with a deal of humor, through which there was a vain of quiet sarcasm that made it very agreeable. A very interesting diagnosis of the disease, its origin, progress and full deve lopment, with some familiar examples, was give. 1 by the lecturer who prescribed sundry remedies, some mild, others severe, as the cases migh require. But, the only certain cure was to let the patients have their desire-that is, to get married. One kind of love, however, prevailed in Virginia, and the South, which is known as "Love of Country." "That love," said the lecturer, in conclusion, "is no disease, and it can never be cured."

UNION MEETING OF SABBATH SCHOOLS.-Mr. W. R. Hunter, "The Children's Friend," will address a union preeting of the Sabbath Schools of the city, to-morrow, at 3 o'clock, in the Methodist Church South, Washington street. All the Sunday Schools of the city and the public generally are invited to attend .--The children are requested to assemble at 23 o'clock, and occupy the front seats. The Danville Register says of the Lecturer: William R. Hunter, known in many of the Southern States as the "Children's Friend," has been lecturing in Danville for three or four days past | the parties. upon the subject of Sunday Schools. His lectures have been, for the most part, addressed to the children, but have also proved highly interesting to the adults of his audience. Mr. Hunter's chief aim seems to be to make good moral impressions upon the minds of the rising | execute the said decree. generation, and he is certainly more competent to do this than any one we have ever listened to.

THE MARKET, this week has been very poorly supplied with country produce-indeed, on some days there was bardly any market at all, except for Butcher's meats. This morning the supply improved, but it was only tolerable.-Prices remain as before quoted-both for meats and poultry. Very little game is now brought in for sale. Beef and mutton are at former RECOMMENDATIONS.-We have been re quested to ask that citizens will, when applied to far assistance from the Corporation, take the trouble to enquire into the case before giving recommendations, as in many cases imposition has been practiced, and those really deserving made to suffer thereby.

I. O. O. F .- At a meeting of Sarepta Lodge, No. 46, held on Tuesday last, the following officers were elected for the six months ensuing: John Simpson, Noble Grand; Jesse Sherwood, Vice Grand; E. Lewis Milburn, Treasurer, and John W. Campbell, Secretary.

BASE BALL.-R. M. Latham, and A. M. Hall, have been elected delegates to represent Mount Vernon Base Ball Club, at a convention proposed to be held in Richmond, 4th of February next, of delegates from clubs throughout the State.

MINISTER CALLED. - The Rev. E. J. Willis, has received and accepted a call as pastor of the Baptist Church, in this city. Mr. W. has, on several occasions recently, officiated in this church, and has given great satisfaction to the congregation.

THE WEATHER, this morning, was moderate-comparatively. In the sun, the thaw went on gradually. But it freezes at night, as much as it thaws during the day. Persons were crossing the river this morning, on the

NEW FIRM. - We would call attention to the advertisement in to-day's Gazette, of Messrs. Withers & Tolson, young gentlemen well and favorably known, who have opened a whole sale and retail flour and feed store, at the old theatre building. To Correspondents. - We have several communications on miscellaneous subjects, on file, for insertion, as soon as opportunity permits. We cannot use manuscript written on both sides of the same sheet of paper.

THE SLEIGHING, last night, was "fast and furious" - King street seemed to be the principal drive-but the tinkling of the sleigh bells was heard all over town. Some horses suf-

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE. - On new year's day the Alexandria (Va.) Gazette commenced its sixty-eighth year. The Gazette is therefore one of the oldest, as it is also one of the most consistent advocates of conservative political principles, in the country. We heartily wish it many more years of usefulness which shall be not without profit to itself .-- Balt. Sun.
